

2018 - 2019 Talks / Events

TALKS AVAILABLE TO MEMBERS AND NON MEMBERS

Members of Kirkley Hall	£2
Others	£3

No pre booking required

Wednesday 9th January at 2pm

Judging for Northumbria in Bloom

Mr and Mrs Patterson have been judging in this competition for 7 years. This is a beautifully illustrated presentation.

Wednesday 13th February at 2pm

Our zoo at Kirkley Hall

Steven Sykes is the Animal Resource Centre Manager at Kirkley. He comes as a highly recommended presenter.

Wednesday 13th March at 2pm

Strange tales of old Newcastle

Geoff Hughes is a retired teacher and is also a highly recommended presenter - discover old Newcastle in photographs.

Wednesday 10th April at 7pm

The great Chelsea Flower Show Challenge

Sean Murray is a self-taught gardener and was chosen to compete on TV with 5 others for this opportunity. Sean won!

Wednesday 8th May at 7pm

The drove roads of Northumberland

Dr Ian Roberts will give a fascinating presentation about the old drove roads - designed for the movement of animals.

Wednesday 12th June at 7pm

Northumberland's secret seas

Ben Burville has probably spent more time under water than above it. He will focus on the behaviour of grey seals.

Wednesday 10th July at 7pm

Thomas Bewick & the Northumberland Countryside

Hugh Dixon comes highly recommended to us - learn more about our own countryside and Thomas Bewick the wood engraver.

Wednesday 11th September at 7pm

AGM this is a free event – Members only

Wednesday 9th October at 2pm

Memories of the cinema

Prof John Derry will tell us about the golden age of the cinema, invention of sound recording & the work of famous producers.

Wednesday 13th November at 2pm

Shelter Box

Jonathan Ewan will inform us about how some disasters that never make the news are helped by Shelter Box.